Brecksville United Church of Christ

MARCH 2015

Loving, Serving, and Accepting All People With God's Life-Changing Power

PONDERINGS...

*...Marching to a

The month of March is named for Mars, the Roman God of War. Invincible in his impenetrable armor, Mars relentlessly overcomes his enemies with swift and brutal force. This March, we follow the path of a completely different kind of conqueror - One who seeks to capture the hearts of all people, friend and foe alike, with compassionate grace and humble service. This conqueror's remarkable strength is found in his willingness to be gentle, vulnerable, and openly welcoming to all those he meets.

By standing-up for the poor and downtrodden, Jesus Christ reveals the true nature of Divine love and mercy. By laying-down his life for the sake of humankind, Jesus shows us the tremendous power that can be found through self-giving sacrifice and service. This March will take us to the middle of Holy Week - a week which begins with what appears to be Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, and ends with his tragic exit on Good Friday. But as we know, that's not where the story ends. The Resurrection of Easter shows us that Death is not the final conqueror. The abiding power of Divine Life and Love will always have the final say! And by raising Christ from death to life, God confirms the everlasting value of a life dedicated to justice, forgiveness and peace.

Throughout the month, we have a variety of opportunities to remember Christ's life, and to grow together in faith. Our Adult Study on THE ABC'S OF OUR FAITH continues on Tuesdays evenings from 7:15-8:30. Holy Week then begins with our festive Procession of Palms at our March 29th Sunday morning worship service. On April 2nd, Maunday Thursday, we will gather in Pilgrim Hall for our Soup Supper at 6:30, and celebrate Christ's Last Supper with a service at 7:00. This year, we will also have a 7:00 pm. Good Friday Service, along with the members of the Catholic Community of Saint Bridget. (This is the group that holds Mass here on Saturdays, led by Ann Klonowski and Mary Collingwood.) Then, on Easter morning, we will have our annual Sunrise Service at 6:45 at Highland Cemetery and our glorious Easter Celebration Service at 10:00.

On that first Easter morning, in spite of the confusion, fear, and doubts that surround them, the early Easter witnesses hurry from the tomb to share the Good News with their friends. It is difficult to keep Good News quiet, and there's really no reason to do so! I pray that each of us will make an effort to come together in celebration of God's amazing love for us and for our world; and that we will all invite and welcome others to join us in the celebration!

With you in Christ's Service,
Pastor Dave

If you would like to have a pastoral visit in your home, or simply need to talk, please call Pastor Dave at the church office (440-526-4364) or at home (440-546-1193). He will be glad to meet with you.

I want to extend a big THANK YOU to the individuals who anonymously contributed a bonus for me this year. I certainly appreciate the extra income, but appreciate even more the generosity that they, and so many others here at BUCC, consistently demonstrate. And also THANKS to all those who helped me celebrate another birthday! Your encouraging support and spirit of fun and festivity helps keep me young(ish)!

Pastor Dave

OUR LENTEN STUDY ON THE ABC'S OF OUR FAITH continues on Tuesdays from 7:15-8:30 pm in Pilgrim Hall. We are looking at some of the basic teachings and practices of Christianity, and how they have evolved throughout the years. We also share our thoughts about their meaning and relevance today, as well as our questions and personal experiences that help make our Faith - and our lives - interesting, challenging and worthwhile! Each week's session "stands alone", so feel free to participate in as many as your schedule permits. Our remaining sessions are:

March 3 - The Bible
March 10 - The Gospel
March 17 - The Christ, Jesus
March 24 - The Sacraments

FROM THE MINISTRIES OF BUCC

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

This year's Lenten project will again be about raising money to donate to Brookside Hunger Center. Due to budget cuts, the need is greater than ever. The kids will be doing two things towards this during lent - making crafts (including more beaded lanyards) to sell on Palm Sunday and collecting toiletries for donations. Toiletries will be collected every Sunday in a basket by the mitten tree.

Crafting will occur during Sunday School during lent. The Junior and High School kids are asked to meet in the Middle School room for Sunday School. They will then split up and help with crafting in the elementary and secondary classes.

If you have any questions, please contact Sue Maier at 440-915-4988 or Eyerienne@aol.com

MEMBERSHIP

We will be having our Annual Bowling outing on Sunday, March 8 at 1:00 pm. More info to follow! Hope to see you there!

SPIRITUAL LIFE

ILCU (Intentional Loving Caring Unit)

This ministry tries to keep up with members who have had surgery, are in recovery or just can't get to our Sunday services. A note, a phone call, a prayer....a way to keep in touch and let them know we are thinking of them.

Kirk and Lee Sanderson - by the time you read this, they will be moved into Chippewa Place, 7005 Stadium Pl. #222, Brecksville, OH 44141

Cheryl Spieth - at home following by-pass surgery, 8977 Highland Rd., Brecksville, OH 44141

Doris Schmid - following a fall, Legacy Place, 9528 Vail Dr., Twinsburg, OH 44087

Bill Harris - 6818 Hidden Lake Trail, Brecksville, OH 44141

Shirley Duncan - Summit Pointe, 9633 Valley View Rd., #2507, Macedonia, OH 44056

Cindy Burton - 7645 Winding Way, Brecksville, OH 44141

If you know of someone who needs to be remembered, please give me a call at 330-467-9357. Thank you, Janet Renovetz.

STEWARDSHIP

Purposeful De-Cluttering

by Betsey Wilson, Stewardship Committee Member

It's becoming a tradition in the Wilson household. The tree comes down, the ornaments get packed away, and I go into feverish spring-cleaning mode. Don't get me wrong; during the holidays I love the cozy comfort of knickknacks and twinkling lights. The long winter nights leave barely enough daylight to see the gathering dust bunnies anyway. But come cold, bright January mornings, I want it ALL gone.

The Bible encourages us to release our grip on possessions. Hebrews 12:1 instructs, "let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles." It's liberating to cast off our dependence on "things," and in some cases, it's even easy. I happily plow through the plastic container cupboard, the boys' closets and the junk drawer. It's the sentimental items that get tricky. Currently I'm sifting through old photos. If it's blurry, a duplicate or co-stars my bad '80's perm, no problem – into the circular file. But I MIGHT just need a dozen of David's 1st grade wallet-sized photos. And what about when Drew's a major league baseball player? Those little league snapshots could be worth a fortune! Baby steps, Betsey, baby steps.

What are the benefits of paring down? Well, obviously the less stuff you own, the less time you need to clean it, move it or think about it. Also, it's easier to stay organized when you have less to organize. And the big one for me; the more I declutter, the more thoughtful I become about the purchases I make. Do I really need it/love it, and is there a place for it? My humble suggestion if you're thinking of diving in? Keep it simple. While the internet offers myriad organizing ideas, it can also overwhelm. Search 'Declutter 365' for daily 15-minute, manageable tasks. Flylady.net, a support and self-help group that offers housekeeping advice, is also a valuable tool.

In 2015 I encourage you to expand your understanding of the stewardship of possessions. Permission to keep and permission to toss/recycle is the essence of stewardship. My family is unburdened at the very same time another family is being blessed. Win/win! And as we're reminded in the 24th Psalm "The earth is the Lord's and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it." Let's be good stewards of our possessions, even if it means un-possessing them.

SAVE THE DATE

There will be a Corned Beef and Cabbage Meal on Sunday, March 15 following Service. Hope to see you there!

LETTER OF THANKS

Lee and I want to thank so many of you for your prayers, cards, and visits, as we struggled a bit with health. I am now on dialysis three times a week and Lee's pain is mostly under control.

We are happy to be settled in at Chippewa Place, 7005 Stadium Drive #222 in Brecksville. The same old telephone number - 440-526-4132.

LIBRARY

THE BUCC LIBRARY calls your attention to some of our new books: The Power of Parable: How Fiction by Jesus Became Fiction About Jesus, by John Dominic Crossan; The Faith Instinct: How Religion Evolved and Why It Endures, by Nicholas Wade; Without Buddha, I Could Not Be a Christian, by Paul F. Knitter; Christianity After Religion: The End of Church and the Birth of a New Spiritual Awakening, by Albert

Nolan; What Money Can't Buy: The Moral Limits of Markets, by Michael J. Sandel; Why Did Jesus, Moses, the Buddha and Mohammed Cross the Road?: Christian Identity in a Multi-Faith World, by Brian D. McLaren; Evolution of the Word: The New Testament in the Order the

Books Were Written, by Marcus J. Borg; When "Spiritual But Not Religious" Is Not Enough: Seeing God in Surprising Places, Even the Church, by Lillian Daniel; An Altar in the World: A Geography of Faith, by Barbara Brown Taylor; and

The Magician's Nephew, by C.S. Lewis (prequel to The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe). Look for these on the top shelf of the red book cart, along with issues of Still Speaking magazine.

MUSIC

Seasonal Choir – On Thursday Feb. 19 at 7:00 pm, seasonal choir will begin rehearsing for Holy Week, which is scheduled for March 29-April 5 this year. If you enjoy singing in a group setting, but don't have time to commit to regular choir, seasonal choir provides a great opportunity for music, fellowship, and spiritual preparation for Holy Week. High school students are welcome. Rehearsals run from 7-8 pm on Thursdays during Lent. Listening CDs are provided to help learn the music.

On Sunday March 1, Brecksville UCC will host the Baldwin Wallace Brass Choir, directed by John Brndiar. The Choir will play several works involving full ensemble, as well as pieces written for smaller quartets, quintets, etc. A free-will offering will be received, and a light reception will follow the program. We hope you can be present with us on March 1 to enjoy these outstanding brass players.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

One Great Hour of Sharing responds to disasters every 2.5 days on average, and changes lives 365 days each year. One Great Hour of Sharing is at work in 138 countries, including the U.S.A. We will receive an offering for One Great Hour of Sharing on March 15th. This will make us a partner in refugee relief, disaster relief, and community development efforts. Along with other United Church of Christ churches. One example of community development is improved access to clean and safe drinking water.

WOMEN UNITED

Women United will meet Wednesday, March 18, 11:30. The program will be announced soon. Bring a sandwich. Coffee and tea will be provided.

ENCORE

In the interest of space/resource conservation, we will no longer be printing an Encore Sermon.

All of Pastor Dave's Sermons are online at our Church Website, or also available to listen to on DVD in the Office. Thank you.
